

To further on meet the high requirements of our international clients we are looking for flexible and team-oriented associates (m/f) with established education (graduate engineer/engineer) as

Project Manager Measurement and Control

As measurement and control specialist (m/f) with experience in project planning you also work nationwide within a team on planning, documentation and compilation of specifications. You acquire schedules and pay attention to its compliance in line with construction management.

Project Manager Process Automation

As specialist (m/f) for SPC/PLC you compile requirement specifications, programme and configurate control systems and start up systems and constructions.

In both areas you work customer-oriented and you are proficient in the German and English language. You are interested in an interesting longterme employment also in international projects with an efficiency-orientated remuneration and good development potentialities. Experiences within the Oil & Gas area is advantageous.

Please forward your application documents with earliest entry date and desired salary per post or email to:

fiwa Ro S.R.L. | attn. Mr. Wolfgang Esterbauer | office.ro@fi-wa.com |
Sibiului Nr. 2 Et. 3 | 557260 Selimbar / Sibiu | phone +40 269 244446

www.fi-wa.com | office@fi-wa.com

Finze & Wagner

is a world wide active engineering company for measurement and control technique and process automation with more than 150 employees at various national and international sites.

